Look for Paul Stutes' email the week before the scheduled date and then another on Friday when he sends out weather, wind and tide info as well as preliminary commitments from skippers, crew "needs" and/or crew "availability". If you are a CYC member and want to learn how to sail, this is your invitation to respond to "crew availability". You don't have to know anything—just be willing to come and learn.

IF YOU DID NOT GET PAUL STUTES EMAIL DATED August 12, 2023 PLEASE CONTACT BUTCH NOLAN, YOUR MEMBERSHIP CHAIR, AT BREAKWATER@ATT.NET

NOTE: The race schedule is posted on our website at Cypremort.com under EVENTS

ADULT AND YOUTH SUNFISH SAILING CAMPS

A good time was had by both the Adult Sunfish Sailing Camps and the Youth Sunfish Sailing Camps held in June and July. Pictures are available in the Photo Gallery for both.

The weather for the Adult camp was great. It was slow and easy for the first day and really wild for the second day giving all the participants a chance to apply what they had learned. We had one lone chase boat (Jake) who kept an eye on everyone.

The Youth Camp had little wind on the first day but the instructor, Bill Whitehead used it to teach the campers how to right the boats when they flipped. The second day was a rain-out. But that instruction came in handy on the third day when the winds were crazy and the boats were flying! Several of the boats got to apply their new found knowledge of how to right their boats after the wind knocked them over. Thanks to the chase boats and the guys that committed 3 days to making sure that everyone was safe.

It takes a lot of time, planning, effort and volunteers to put on these Sunfish Sailing Camps. Thanks to all of the volunteers—Cooks (the way to a sailors heart is through their stomach), Instructors—keeping the crazies in line, Chase Boats—endless zooming across the bay to round up the mavericks (including Catherine), and more. And last but not least, the guy who spearheads it all, Bill Whitehead.
